Fall 2016

On July 21st, Janet Anderson attended an event in celebration of Alma McDonald's 100th birthday and presented her with a special plaque from CN on behalf of the CN Pensioners' Association. The event, which was held at Golden West Centennial Lodge, was put on by her son Don McDonald and daughter-in-law Cheryl Penny. Several family members were in attendance including Alma's brother who made a special trip from Edmonton to be with Alma on this special occasion. Alma was born near Onoway, AB, marrying shortly after the war. They lived in the Fort Rouge area of Winnipeg where she loved to garden and was an exceptional cook and baker. Alma has 3 grandchildren - Ben, Chris and Karen and one great grandson - Kyrán.

On June 20th, Linda Schram attended a celebration of Nell Macauley's 100th birthday and presented her with a special plaque from CN on behalf of the CN Pensioners' Association. The event which was put on by her son Bill and daughter-in-law Karen, was held at the Waverley where Nell resides. Many family and friends were in attendance. Nell enjoys spending time with her family which includes her son, daughter-in-law, 2 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. She also enjoys reading and being involved with her neighbours at the Waverley.

On September 12, 2016, Jack Moore attended a 100th birthday celebration for Nellie Serofin and had the honor of presenting Nellie with a special plaque from CN on behalf of the CN Pensioners' Association of Manitoba. The event was put on by her family and was held at Park Manor Care in Transcona, where Nellie resides. The event was attended by many of her family and friends including residents of Park Manor. Nellie was born in Moosehorn Manitoba and married Mike in 1935. Nellie enjoys watching curling, bowling and football and has many curling and bowling trophies herself. Nellie was quite the sewer and dressmaker.

On behalf of all members of the CN Pensioners' Association of Manitoba, we wish them all a very Happy Birthday!
